

Be advised that if the current FCC ownership rules are changed our government would in effect be promoting a capitalist point of view of a few over a democratic society FOR ALL that flourishes only because of our vibrant and varied news organizations.